2. This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Group I, claim(s) 1, 2-5, 9-12, 25, 26-27, drawn to an apparatus for dispensing golf balls having a special technical feature of cylindrical ball singulating channel depending from a bulk storage area.

Group II, claim(s) 1, 7, 8, 15, 16, 28, 29 drawn to an apparatus for dispensing golf balls having a special technical feature of a ball braking device located in the dispensing path.

Group III, claim(s) 1, 13, 14, 18, 19, 20, 23, 21, 22, 24 drawn to an apparatus for dispensing golf balls having a special technical feature of a pivotal arm lock.

Art Unit: 3653

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Base claims 1 contains the common technical features of a golf ball dispenser comprising a ball receiving flange, a ball supply, and a pivoting dispensing arm, well known in the art as exemplified by: Ose 4253668 and Hoffmeister 4676397, and the base claim lacks any special technical feature, and can be examined with any of the three groups.

The Group II and III claims lack the special technical feature of the group I claims of: a cylindrical ball singulating channel depending from a bulk storage area.

The Group I and III claims lack the special technical feature of the group II claims of: a ball braking device located in the dispensing path.

The Group I and II claims lack the special technical feature of the group III claims of: of a pivotal arm lock.
